

How to get to Carbon Neutral

Norfolk House, 6/85 Forrest St,
Cottesloe

Site map

Walking

If you live nearby in Swanbourne or Cottesloe, you may only be a short walk away from Carbon Neutral. If you don't live close enough to walk, why not add some physical activity into your day and walk or ride to your closest train station or bus stop that will connect you with Carbon Neutral.

Cycling

Cycling is a great way to add some activity into your day. Bicycle routes near Carbon Neutral include the shared paths along the Fremantle Train Line. Curtin Avenue also has a dedicated cycling lane and Forrest Street is a low traffic, 'cycle friendly' road. Cycle commuters can access a shower and store bicycles in the lower car park.

Public transport

Carbon Neutral is located a short (100m) walk from Cottesloe Station on the Fremantle Train Line. It is also well served by frequent buses – the 102, 103, 107, 998, and 999 all run nearby (see site map for details). These buses can connect Carbon Neutral's employees and visitors with Fremantle, Cottesloe, Swanbourne, Claremont, Nedlands, Shenton Park, Subiaco, West Perth, and the Perth CBD.

Contact Transperth to find out what bus or train services you can use – phone 13 62 13 or visit www.transperth.wa.gov.au. You can also plan your trip with the Transperth App.

Want to reduce your carbon footprint?
Then why not catch public transport,
walk, ride or carpool to Carbon Neutral.

Meetings

Instead of driving to a meeting, particularly in the Perth CBD or Fremantle, you could find it easy to use the bus or the train and avoid traffic and parking hassles. Carbon Neutral staff can use a business SmartRider for travel to work-related meetings.

Connect with Carbon Neutral

Choosing active ways to get to Carbon Neutral can be a great step to a healthier lifestyle and the perfect way to help the environment, too. For more information on reducing your carbon footprint visit Carbon Neutral's website at www.carbonneutral.com.au or contact Carbon Neutral on (08) 9200 4424.

Planning your journey

You can use online tools to plan your journey, including the online Transperth Journey Planner and Transperth app - for planning transit and walking trips.
